

Bachelor of Theology: Intercultural Studies

The Bachelor of Theology (BTh) is designed to form character and develop skills in women and men called by God, enabling them to serve as reflective practitioners in the church of Jesus Christ. The degree is distinguished by an emphasis on serious biblical study through a sustained encounter with the text in an original language.

In keeping with the University College mission and in support of its educational philosophy, this track is designed to prepare students to effectively live and witness the grace of God in Jesus in the intercultural context of the contemporary world.

Program Planning Guide

This program planning guide is designed to help you plan your degree program. When you have met a requirement, place a check mark beside it. When all of the requirements are checked, you should be eligible for graduation.

Please remember that this is only a guide—the Academic Calendar is the final authority on academic questions, including academic policies and program requirements. Students are responsible for the accuracy of their own programs. This is not a graduation check or an application for graduation.
